

Yankee Shelties Visitor Representations

Extreme animal rights activists are considered domestic terrorists by the FBI. They are usually associated with animal rights organizations.

No animal rights activists are admitted to Yankee Shelties.

Therefore, the visitor certifies that he/she is not a paid worker or volunteer for any animal rights groups such as, but not limited to, the Humane Society of the United States (HSUS), American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA), Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA), People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals (PeTA) or any such similar organization on a national or local level, or an individual whose purpose is to visit in an undercover capacity to interfere with the livelihood of those who breed, raise or rescue animals.

Visitor certifies that a copy of their valid driver's license is attached that displays their current address.
